

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

Human Factors and Ergonomics Society Student Chapter

Presents

Dr. Steven Lavender

Topic: "Development of Interventions to Reduce Musculoskeletal Loads During Patient Transfer and Transport Tasks Encountered by Fire Fighters"

Wed., November 1

5:00-6:00 p.m.

210 Baker Systems

Dr. Steven Lavender has been with the Industrial, Welding, and Systems Engineering Department since 2002. Prior to joining OSU, Dr. Lavender worked as a research scientist at Rush University Medical Center in Chicago for 12 years. There he pursued both laboratory based and field projects focused on spine biomechanics and workplace ergonomics.

For more information, please visit our web-site at <http://hfes.org.ohio-state.edu/>

